Comrades stepped up several gears in their pre-season preparations with a comprehensive win at Shankill United on a very warm evening in Belfast. The visitors struck the front in the 18th minute with a goal from one of the new summer signings Kyle Dillon. However, two minutes later Shankill were back on terms from the penalty spot.

The sides went in at half-time on level terms, but the second half saw Comrades impress in pulling away from their opponents.

In the 65th minute trialist Corey McMullan, who after the game signed to join the club from Limavady United, struck to give Comrades the lead. Then, two minutes later, it was 3-1, with Mark Shannon converting from the penalty spot.

Further goals; on 75 minutes from another summer signing, Adam Irwin; and just before the final whistle from Chris Trussell; capped off a very satisfactory work-out for Stephen Hughes' men.
