Against Dundela Reserves at Dixon Park the Wee Reds had plenty of the ball, but failed to turn possession in to goals, and consequently were beaten 2-0.

During a scoreless first half Scott Cummings, Michael Haskins and Reece Gilmour had shots saved, and a Kyle Robinson header was scrambled off the line, while at the opposite end Ross McKnight was not seriously tested either.

Two minutes in to the second session the Duns opened the scoring when one of their strikers pounced on a wayward back-pass to McKnight, and stroked the ball past the stranded keeper.

Comrades forced several corners that were unproductive, but from one of them Graham Ervine's header rebounded off the bar. Later Gilmour seemed set to equalise, but his finishing effort hit the post, and when the city side netted a second time ten minutes from time, the points were secure.

"We were well beaten by a strong Welders side on Saturday, but we let ourselves down against mediocre opposition on this occasion," stated Burrows.

Comrades Reserves: McKnight; Gault (C), C McCauley, Ervine, Fenton; Haggan, McIlveen; Robinson, Haskins, Gilmour; Cummings. Subs: Clarke, Lilburn, A McCauley.
