Ballyclare Comrades Reserves suffered their first defeat of the season when they were humbled by Dundela Reserves.

This Championship Development League North fixture was played at Wilgar Park, where the hosts built on their 2-0 lead at the interval to finish 6-0 winners.

Manager Kingsley Burrows had to make wholesale changes to his line-up owing to Reece Gilmour, Joel Haggan, Ewan McGrath and CJ McQuillan being unavailable, and not surprisingly his side turned in a sub-standard performance.

“We never really turned up,” he fumed. “It was defensive error after defensive error throughout the afternoon. We didn’t play our normal passing game, and in all honesty their goalkeeper didn’t have to make a save all afternoon. After having scored six against Moyola the previous week, this heavy defeat brought us down to earth again,” he added.

Comrades Reserves: Horner; McCauley, Chalmers, Ervine, Fenton; Coulter, Gault (C), Clarke, McCabery; McCabe, Mackie. Subs: Lilburn, Cooper.
