Comrades opened their pre-season games with a win at Moyola Park. Despite the absence of a number of players due to holidays, work commitments or injury, manager Stephen Hughes was able field a quite largely experienced starting line-up. The only goal of a competitive first half came in the 29th minute, when new signing, defender Adam Wright scored.

The second half saw the usual raft of substitutions from both sides, including a number of Under-20 players coming on for Comrades.

The home side snatched an equaliser in the 59th minutes. However, Comrades restored their lead on 80 minutes, with Scott Gault providing the finish to claim what turned out to be the winning goal.
