Ballyclare Comrades Reserves recorded their first win of the season when they advanced to the second round of the County Antrim Junior Shield at the expense of Killough on a 3-0 scoreline at Antrim Forum.

Kurt Cooper opened the scoring in the 5th minute when he converted a penalty following a foul on Tom Patchett, and the Wee Reds continued to dominate, but Michael McCabe and Ryan Weatherhead were unable to hit the target when well placed.

After the interval substitute Jack Walsh doubled the lead after latching on to an over the top lob by Ethan McKeown, and after the visitors had been reduced to ten men skipper Thomas Campbell completed the whitewash from a Patchett pass.

Man of the match: midfielder Adam McClelland.

“We were all over them and should have won by a much wider margin,” stated manager Stephen Black.

Comrades U20s: Fry, Cooper, Doherty, Weatherhead, Sloss, McClelland, Campbell (C), McKeown, Patchett, Worthington, McCabe. Subs: Close, Walsh, Surgeoner, Lilburn, Robinson.
